

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Eligibility for Associate Membership

- An organization or individual that does not operate a franchised new car dealership in California may apply to become an associate member of CNCDA.
- Applications for associate membership will not be accepted from:
 - vehicle manufacturers;
 - vehicle manufacturer-affiliated lenders;
 - individuals or organizations that compete with franchised new car dealers for customers in the areas of vehicle sales and/or service;
 - individuals or organizations that have a history of filing civil actions against dealerships; or
 - individuals or organizations that have interests generally adverse to the franchised new car dealer business.
- Applications are subject to approval by the CNCDA Board of Directors.

Terms of Associate Membership

- Associate members are not entitled to use CNCDA's name and/or logo in advertisements or other materials.
- Associate members cannot reproduce or repurpose materials, publications, or other content developed by CNCDA without express written permission from CNCDA.
- Associate membership may be revoked at any time at the discretion of the CNCDA Board of Directors and/or the President.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP DUES

Associate Membership Dues

$1,500*

Contribute to CNCDA's PAC!

CNCDA PAC is a political action committee sponsored by CNCDA, and it provides an important way for new car dealers to become part of the political process.

$500

Other amount: $ _____

*Associate Membership dues are $1,500 upon acceptance of application. Dues are based on 12-month calendar year. Applications received after June 1st may be considered for the following calendar year based on approval by the Board of Directors.

Note: In compliance with the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, we reasonably estimate that 100% of your CNCDA membership dues are allocable to lobbying expenditures. PAC contributions are a voluntary political contribution to support CNCDA's political activities. Membership dues allocable to the lobbying expenditures and contributions to CNCDA's political committees are not deductible for federal or state income tax purposes. Please consult with your own tax advisor for more information.

Please return your completed application to membership@cncda.org.

If you would like to add additional staff contacts to your roster, please fill out their information on Page 2.
